Additional Information Guide

This Additional Information Guide (Guide) for QBE Contents Insurance provides you with more information about how we calculate premium, how excesses work, and how we settle claims under this policy.

This Guide applies to new and renewing policies effective from 11 November 2024 and should be read together with the QBE Contents Insurance Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) QM8698.

Premium

Premium is what you pay us for this Policy. It's the amount we've calculated to accept the risk of insurance under this policy. It also includes any discounts you've received, GST and other applicable government fees, duties and charges.

When calculating your premium we take a number of factors into account, including the following:

Description
Including its location, types of construction materials, when it was built, the type of any swimming pool or spa it has, type of building, number of storeys and the extent to which any part of it is above or below the ground.
The higher the sum insured for your contents, the higher your premium will be.
Your premium will be higher if you list jewellery and/or watches and if you want them to be covered outside of a safe.
Including the age of the oldest insured and any buildings or contents insurance claims made in the relevant three year period. Your premium may be higher depending on the type of claim and how long ago it was.
Your premium may be higher for up to three following policy years, after one or more claims on your policy.
The higher the Basic Excess you have selected, the lower your premium will be.
Your premium will be approximately 10% lower if you pay for your policy annually instead of by instalments.

Information relating to premium calculation

The list of factors above is not exhaustive. We may take other factors into account and add or remove factors. The importance we place on the factors we use to calculate the premium and how the factors combine, all affect calculation of the premium. Some factors will not affect all components of the premium and all components of the premium may not be subject to discounts in the same way or at all.

How the factors combine to calculate premium may also be impacted according to your circumstances and other commercial factors. The premium, determined by a combination of the factors, may be adjusted up or down to reflect your circumstances and underwriting considerations including the risk being insured and the value of any claims. An underwriting adjustment may limit premium increases and decreases from the combination of the factors and any discounts.

Your previous year's premium is taken into account on renewal and may limit premium increases from the combination of the factors and any discounts.

The premium we calculate according to the rating factors, your circumstances and other commercial factors, including taxes and government charges, will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.

Cover options

An additional premium applies for each option that you add to your policy:

Accidental Damage option

We determine the additional premium for this option based on your other policy details, as well as any accidental damage insurance claims made by household members and anyone covered in the relevant three year period, and any accidental damage claims made on your policy in the prior three years.

Portable Contents option

We determine the additional premium for this option based on the type of items you want covered away from your home and their sum insured. We also consider any portable contents insurance claims made by household members and anyone covered in the relevant three year period, and any portable contents claims made on your policy in the prior three years.

Renewals

Each time you renew your policy, your premium is likely to change even if your insured circumstances haven't changed.

This is because we use many factors to set your premium.

When we set your renewal premium, we consider how much it was before, and we may limit any increase in that renewal term.

Discounts

We may offer discounts or other special offers from time to time. A discount that you have received will be displayed in the premium breakdown on your Certificate of Insurance or else included within your premium. GST and government charges are applied to the premium after all discounts and savings are applied.

In most cases, you'll need to contribute an amount towards the cost of a claim.

The table on the next page explains the excesses that apply to common claim types. For other types of claims, we'll tell you what excesses apply when you make a claim.

Please refer to your Certificate of Insurance for the excesses that apply to your policy.

How we apply the excess(es) for unspecified items worth more than the standard policy limit

Where a maximum limit is applicable under 'Contents with Limits', the excess will be applied to the claim prior to applying the maximum limit.

For example, if a ring worth $4,000 was stolen from the home and it had not been listed as a Specified Contents item, the $2,500 per item standard policy limit for jewellery would apply. If the Basic Excess - Contents was $500, this would be applied to the $4,000 claim, rather than to the $2,500 maximum limit. Therefore, $2,500 would be payable.

If the ring had been listed as a Specified Contents item for $4,000, we would pay $3,500 i.e. the $4,000 claim less the $500 excess.

If the stolen ring was worth only $1,000, we would pay $500 i.e. $1,000 less the $500 excess.

Claim payment examples

These claims payment examples are based on hypothetical scenarios designed to illustrate how a claim payment might typically be calculated. These claims examples are a guide only and do not form part of your policy's cover.

You should read the PDS and your Certificate of Insurance for full details of cover including the policy limits, conditions and exclusions which apply to your policy.

Each claim example uses AUD currency, inclusive of GST, and assumes the claimant is not registered for GST.
